

An Achievement of the Ages

The 1921 Cadillac and Dodge Brothers Car

As a means of travel nothing can compare with them since the building of the Pyramids.

It is really a paradox: to think that we of today can move gracefully along over the streets and highways in such Master Built Cars, the Superior in car building of all achievements in the past thousands of years, and at a very nominal initial expense; and can continue to travel with greater comfort than any of the ancient kings or queens.

Wishing all our patrons and friends
